

Complaint Form

Advertising / Commercial Communications

Making a Complaint

You must complete this form in full.

If you would like further help or advice, please contact one of the Authority's staff on the number provided on this form or by e-mail, info@bai.ie

Under Sections 48(1)(d) Children's Commercial Communications Code & General Commercial Communications Code of the Broadcasting Act 2009, any viewer or listener may refer a complaint to the BAI if they are unhappy about advertising / commercial communication content on an Irish licensed broadcasting service, both radio and television.

Your complaint must be made no later than 30 days after the broadcast.

When submitting a complaint concerning a commercial communication, a complainant may refer to the Children's Commercial Communications Code or the General Commercial Communications Code.

Commercial communication: types of commercial communications include advertising, sponsorship, teleshopping and product placement but do not include public service announcements and charity appeals broadcast free of charge. Please refer to the General and Commercial Communications Codes for a complete definition.

The Broadcasting Authority of Ireland

Any viewer or listener who is not happy about broadcasting content on an Irish broadcasting service, whether in programme or advertisement form, has a right to complain about it and have their complaint handled by the Broadcasting Authority of Ireland.

The Broadcasting Authority of Ireland has been given the responsibility by the government to deal with all broadcasting complaints, which means the Authority looks at, considers and decides upon the nature of these complaints.

How to make a complaint

All complaints must

- be in writing, preferably by completing the relevant 'Complaint Form' for programmes or advertisements/commercial communications
- be made no later than 30 days after the date of the broadcast
- relate to a broadcast by an Irish broadcasting service
- come within the relevant broadcasting codes and/or legislation
- include a short summary of what concerned you

All complaints considered by the Authority are made publicly available, including the name of the complainant. However, in the event that a complainant has valid concerns relating to privacy issues in making a complaint, in particular under Section 48(1)(c)(Privacy of an Individual), the Authority may consider requests from the complainant for anonymity.

Copies of both advertising codes are available on the BAI website, www.bai.ie or on request from the BAI's offices.

To finish, please read through the above form to ensure all your details are correct.

You may post, e-mail or fax this complaint form to the BAI. The relevant contact details are: -
