The Broadcasting Authority of Ireland

Any viewer or listener who is not happy about broadcasting content on an Irish broadcasting service, whether in programme or advertisement form, has a right to complain about it and have their complaint handled by the Broadcasting Authority of Ireland.

The Broadcasting Authority of Ireland has been given the responsibility by the government to deal with all broadcasting complaints, which means the Authority looks at, considers and decides upon the nature of these complaints.

How to make a complaint

All complaints must

- be in writing, preferably by completing the relevant 'Complaint Form' for programmes or advertising/commercial communications.
- be made no later than 30 days after the date of the broadcast, or in the case of related broadcasts of which at least 2 are made on different dates, the later or latest of those dates
- relate to a broadcast by an Irish broadcasting service
- come within the relevant broadcasting codes and/or legislation
- include a short detailed summary of what concerned you

All complaints considered by the Authority are made publicly available, including the name of the complainant. However, in the event that a complainant has valid concerns relating to privacy issues in making a complaint, in particular under Section 48(1)(c)(Privacy of an Individual), the Authority may consider requests from the complainant for anonymity.
